READING TEST. READ THE FOLLOWING READING CAREFULLY:

“HEIDI”

((1)) This passage is adapted from HEIDI, by Johanna Spyri. HEIDI was a girl from the Swiss mountains who came to live in the city to be a friend to Clara. Clara could not walk and spent most of her time in a wheelchair. The other people in the house were Miss Rottenmeier, the housekeeper, Sebastian, the butler. One day HEIDI went for a walk and came back with two kittens hidden in her pockets. Sebastian greeted her at the door.

((2)) “Come up quickly, little Miss,” he urged. “They are all waiting for you in the dining room. Miss Rottenmeier looks like a loaded cannon. How could you run away like that?”

HEIDI sat down quietly on her chair. Nobody said a word, and there was an uncomfortable silence. At last Miss Rottenmeier began with a severe and solemn voice: “I shall speak with you later, HEIDI. How can you leave the house without a word? Your behavior was very remiss. The idea of walking about till so late!”

“Meow!” was the reply.

“I didn’t,” HEIDI began-----“Meow!”

“This is enough,” Miss Rottenmeier tried to say, but her voice was hoarse with fury. “Get up and leave the room.”

“Heidi got up. She began again. “I made -----” Meow! Meow! Meow! -----”

“Heidi,” said Clara now, “why do you always say “meow” again if you see that Miss Rottenmeier is angry?”

“I am not doing it, it’s the kittens”, she explained.

((3)) “What? Cats? Kittens?” screamed the housekeeper. “Sebastian, take the horrible things away!” With that she ran into the study, locking herself in, for she feared kittens beyond anything on earth. When Sebastian had finished his laugh, he came to the room. He had foreseen the excitement, having caught sight of the kittens when Heidi came in. The scene was a very peaceful one now; Clara was sitting in her wheelchair with the kittens in her lap, and Heidi was standing beside her. They both played happily with the two graceful creatures. The butler promised to look after the newcomers and prepared a bed for them in a basket.
